

An aerial photograph of a city grid, likely New York City, showing a dense arrangement of buildings and streets. A blue circle is drawn around a specific building in the upper-middle section of the image, which is the subject of the text above. The image is in grayscale, with various shades of gray representing different building heights and street layouts.

An architectural rendering of the San Lorenzo Maggiore complex in Naples. The image shows a wide street view with the church's facade and a tall bell tower on the right. In the foreground, a statue of a man in a long coat stands on a pedestal. The sky is a pale blue, and the overall style is a detailed architectural drawing.
